An Invitation to the Episcopal Church

As part of Wednesdays@Nativity, we will offer a 4-week long Episcopal 101 class. These classes are especially fitting for people new to the Episcopal Church, but not exclusively. The sessions are led by Nativity members and our Rector-Elect, Dana Fath Strande, and are sure to engage everyone, no matter where you are on your faith journey.

The sessions are based on the book, "Your Faith, Your Life: An Invitation to the Episcopal Church" by Jennifer Gamber and is an essential read for anyone joining our sessions. It can be purchased on Amazon.com or at St. Mark's Cathedral Bookstore in Minneapolis.

If, at the end of this series, a person, who is not already an Episcopalian, decides he/she would like to be officially received by the Bishop as an Episcopalian, dates will be set in late March and early April for Reception into the Episcopal Church.

Nursery, Quarky Kids and Fusion Youth Group all happen simultaneously from 6-7:30 pm with kids' dinner provided at 5:30. There's something for everyone...and a night when you don't have to cook!!

Episcopal 101 sessions start with dinner at 5:30 and conclude at 7:30 and will begin on February 1st and run for 4 consecutive weeks, until February 22nd.
